Syracuse University College Panhellenic Member Code of Ethics

We, the members of sororities at Syracuse University, agree to promote honesty, respect, sisterhood, and cooperation within the College Panhellenic and our respective chapters and in our daily lives. This code of ethics is designed to inspire our members, reinforce exemplary conduct and values-based leadership and perpetuate lifelong membership to enrich the sorority and Panhellenic experience.

We, as College Panhellenic members of Syracuse University, agree on and commit to:

- Uphold and demonstrate the Panhellenic spirit in thought, word, and action through our chapters as well as individual members.
- Demonstrate ethical behavior and conduct ourselves in a manner consistent with the mission and values of the College Panhellenic, each inter/national organization and the institution.
- Respectfully adhere to the Unanimous Agreements and all policies established by the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC).
- Avoid disparaging remarks about any sorority or collegiate woman and refrain from discussing Panhellenic matters with nonmembers.
- Provide an equitable and inclusive sorority experience for all women who are interested at the institution.
- Recognize friendly relations with all collegiate women, both sorority members and nonmembers, realizing the importance of creating and building friendships.
- Plan recruitment events that provide opportunities for the greatest possible number of women to become sorority members while protecting the rights and privileges of individuals and chapters.
- Provide a safe, positive, and enriching recruitment experience, understanding that membership is a social experience arrived at by mutual selection.

- Strive to be truthful, honorable, open, and friendly to all potential new members during all recruitment events.
- Be respectful of the rights of every potential new member to make a personal choice, including but not limited to not joining the sorority community at a specific time, choosing to intentional single preference or preferencing all sorority chapters.

We, as College Panhellenic members of Syracuse University, also agree and commit to:

- Respectfully adhere to the Bylaws and Primary Recruitment Rules of the College Panhellenic Association.
- Abide by all local and federal laws and NPC inter/national Unanimous Agreements, policies, and best practices.
- Hold one another accountable to this code of ethics, always remembering that we represent not only our individual chapters but also the Panhellenic community as a whole.

As Panhellenic women of Syracuse University, these are the tenets by which we strive to live.
